DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S.

Patent No. 6,824,509 to Yamaya et al.

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application.

Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention “by another,” or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

In regards to claims 1 and 5-6, Yamaya et al. discloses an endoscope apparatus comprising: an observation optical system 3 which is arranged to an inserting portion; a first treatment-tool oscillating base 15 which guides, in a first direction, a first treatment-tool guided via a first channel 10a arranged to the inserting portion; and a second treatment-tool oscillating base 14a which guides, in a second direction, a second treatment-tool guided via a second channel 8 arranged to the inserting portion

Art Unit: 3739

(see Col. 2, Lines 5-30 and Col. 7, Lines 1-50), wherein the end of at least one of the first and second treatment-tools guided by the first and second tool oscillating treatment-bases is guided to the outside of a field of view from the inside of an endoscope image based on an optical image obtained by the observation optical system (see Figs. 59 and 71).

In regards to claims 2-4, Yamaya et al. discloses an endoscope apparatus comprising: an observation optical system 3 which is arranged to an inserting portion; an optical image transmitting member which optically or electronically transmits, to the base end side of the endoscope inserting portion, an optical image formed by the observation optical system as an endoscope image (see Col. 7, Line 50 – Col. 8, Line 14); a first treatment-tool oscillating base 15 which guides, in a first direction, a first treatment-tool guided via a first channel 10a arranged to the inserting portion; and a second treatment-tool oscillating base 14a which guides, in a second direction, a second treatment-tool guided via a second channel 8 arranged to the inserting portion (see Col. 2, Lines 5-30 and Col. 7, Lines 1-50), wherein a field of view of an endoscope image is limited so that the end of at least one of the first and second treatment-tools guided by the first and second treatment-tool oscillating bases is moved to the outside of a field of view from the inside of the endoscope image based on the optical image. (see Figs. 59 and 71).

Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 3739

Claims 7-9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion
